16. We charge the Democratic party as being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding in the National Capitol the sentiments of un-SLVER PLATERS. SLVER PLATERS. in the National Capitol the sentiments of un-repented rebellion; with sending Union sol-diers to the rear and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately pro-posing to repudiate the plighted faith of the Government; with being equally false and imbecile upon the overshadowing financial question; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruc-tion of investigation; with proving itself, through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incompetent to administer the Government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY

[Adopted at Cincinnati, June 15, 1876.]

When, in the economy of Providence, this

When, in the economy of Providence, this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of the government of the people by the people and for the people was to be demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride. Incited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and marking and the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party, the National Convention assembled, make the following declaration of principles:

1. The United States of America is a nation, their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected

2. The Republican party has preserved these governments to the hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now the embodiments of the great truths spoken at its cradle—"that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain nalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Until these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or, if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

3. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party stands sacredly pledged. The publican party stands sacredly pledged. The solemn obligation of the Legislative and Ex-ecutive Departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous use all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the ex-ercise of all civil, political and private rights.

To this end we imperatively demand a Con-gress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter until these results are placed beyond dispute

President Grant, the National Government as-sumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge its just obligation to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make provi-sion, at the earliest practicable moment, for the redemption of United States notes in coin.

Commercial prosperity, public morals and the national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress heads of departments are to make nomina-tions for office, the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions be respected, and that Senators and Represen-tatives, who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of the appointees, preferring friends of the party in power for places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference debt must be largely derived from duties on importations, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of Ameri-can labor and advance the prosperity of the can labor and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

9. We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain he devoted to free homes for the people.

10. It is the imperative duty of the Government to modify existing treaties with European Governments, that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is given to the native hore, and that all that is given to the native born, and that all necessary laws should be passed to protect immigrants in the absence of power in the management of our domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the con-

It set guaranteed tous to be manufactured from selected foreign and domestic leaf. It has no artificial flavor, and we are satisfied that the filler contains a preponderance of Cubin tobacco. In introducing this brand our object is to farmish a cigar at 5 cents—five for 25 cents—of delicate flavor, good enough to push at home. Belleving that no member of the family circle would object to the odor of pure Havana, we commend this cigar in a special manner to gentlemen who wish to enjoy their evening smoke at home, without offense to others.
